

Having a free press is vital to a working democracy. I strongly object to any further consolidation of ownership of television and radio. I would like to see further breakup of current monopolies. PLEASE, listen to the voices of the people of this country. We are already being spoon-fed and strongly resent it.